MAN SPECULATED AND WON WEALTH WHILE IN PRISON

Made Enough To Wipe Off Debt
Of $41,000 And Then Appealed
To The Mercy Of The Court.

STRANGE STORY RELATED IN THE UNITED STATES

New York, May 23—Leo L. Borovitch, a U. S. importer of Austrian birth is today preparing for a journey to England in conformity with a decree issued by a local court.

Borovitch was arrested in England last February on the charge of passing a fraudulent cheque for $41,000 on the American Exchange National Bank of New York. Officers traced him to Buffalo, to Montreal and to Liverpool. His wife, who was with him when he was caught, wore a money belt containing $35,000, they said.

While a prisoner in Old Bailey, London, fighting extradition, Borovitch speculated in foodstuffs and in foreign exchange with such success that when he was turned over to the New York police two months later he had cleaned up $38,000.

He was brought back on the Celtic and lodged in the Tombs in default of $60,000 bail.

From his cell here Borovitch continued his successful speculations and a few days ago he was able to make complete restitution to the bank, with a nice margin of profit for himself. On May 2 he pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny and threw himself on the mercy of the court. The judge wrote the following endorsement on the back of Borovitch's indictment papers: "Sentence suspended. To return to England."

FAMILY CRAZED BY SPIRITUALISM

Smashed Furniture And Then Prepared To Sacrifice Child As a Burnt Offering.

STATED THEY OBEYED THE ORDERS OF SPIRITS

Berlin, May 23—From the village of Knechtennoten, southern Bavaria, comes an amazing story of a whole family of eleven members becoming insane as the result of spiritualistic experiments.

For some time a builder named Brenck, with his wife and five grown-up sons and daughters had accustomed to hold a sort of seance, at which four younger children were also present. Apparently, under the belief that they had received from the spirits instructions to destroy all material substances in the house, they commenced burning the furniture, including the beds. Then they smashed all the crockeryware.

Neighbors found them preparing to kill the three-month-old infant of one of the daughters, the father stating that he was going to offer it as a burnt sacrifice to the "spirit of pure light."

SUMMER SPORTS PREPARED FOR

Bell Island Cadet Athletes Form up
For Season's Contests—Officers
Elected and Plans Discussed.

CADETS TO ORGANISE STRONG FOOTER TEAM.

The Bell Island Cadets, whose team captured the Kent-Shea-Dwyer Football Championship Cup for 1920, and whose representatives made such an excellent showing in the various sports last season, held their Annual Meeting last week. They are now fully organized for this year's programme, and the newly elected Executive includes many of the good old stock who have done much to foster clean athletics on Bell Island.

A very interesting resume of last season's successes was submitted by the President, Capt. J. M. Greene, and the election of officers resulted as follows:—

Hon. President—Capt. Leo. Murphy re-elected.
Hon. V. President—Mr. John Connors, Mr. R. D. Walsh.
President—Capt. Jos. M. Greene, re-elected.
V. President—Mr. Andrew Murphy, re-elected.

PLAN MEMORIAL FOR BELL ISLAND

Davidson Avenue is Chosen as the Site for Proposed Memorial to Honor War Heroes of Iron Isle.

NOVA SCOTIA COMPANY PRESENTED THE SITE.

At a Public Meeting of the Residents of Bell Island, held in the L. O. A. Hall on last Friday evening, the site for the war memorial was definitely decided.

President N. G. Lodge of the G. W. V. A., occupied the Chair, and explained the object of the gathering.

Asst. V. President—Mr. J. P. Burke, Mr. D. J. Jackman.

Treasurer—Sergt. E. Farrel, Secretary—Mr. P. T. Murphy, re-elected.

Football Captain—Mr. J. F. McEvoy, Sub-Capt.—Mr. Gus Connors. Executive Committee—Hon. President, President, Lieut. J. L. Connors, D. Steele, Lieut. J. J. Murphy, Thos. Neary, J. Gunn, Sergts. J. Stone, M. Farrel and P. Stoyles, with the Captain and Sub-Captain of the Football Team.

The speakers were Mr. C. F. Taylor, Capt. Leo Murphy, Rev. I. R. Curtis, R. Bugden, J. Cahill, W. J. Power, W. Somerton and ex-Sergt. H. Gover.

The meeting expressed appreciation at the offer of two freehold sites—one from the D. L. and S. Co., at Main Street, the Mines, and the other from the Nova Scotia Co., near the Methodist Church, on Davidson Avenue, but on proceeding to ballot, the latter place was chosen. The final arrangements for the erection and unveiling of the Monument will now be made.

FRANCE'S FINANCIAL BURDEN

New Loan Necessary for Thirty-Two Billion Francs.

Paris, May 25.—France must borrow thirty two billion francs to cover expenditures this year, M. Cheron, reporter of the Finance Committee informed the Senate yesterday. France faces what he describes as a difficult but not impossible situation, if Germany meets her obligations regularly and France makes proper efforts. Discussing the deficit M. Cheron said,—"It is impossible for these conditions to continue. The Budget must be balanced within two years, at latest, by heroic economies."

ONLY REPUBLIC WILL SUIT IRISH

De Valera Says The Sinn Fein Are Determined To Abandon None of Their Plans For Independence.

EXTREMISTS ARE VERY BUSY THROUGHOUT IRELAND NOW

Dublin, May 23.—The Sinn Fein leaders are encouraged by the recent Irish elections, giving them a total of 124 out of 128 seats in the Southern Parliament.

The extremists are doing all they possibly can to block a settlement by a campaign of outrage, altho the leaders on both sides have arranged an unofficial truce.

This is the explanation of the Grattan Street outrage of a few nights ago, when 15 civilians were injured and none of the fighters on either side met injury.

The Crown forces, who are under strict discipline did not fire and the attackers got away.

It is untrue, as rumored, that De Valera has been in London in conference with Lloyd George. He has made the assertion that he has not been out of Ireland since his arrival there.

De Valera declares emphatically that the Sinn Fein does not abandon its demands for Ireland's absolute, independence of England and that the southern situation is unchanged by the elections, which resulted in the return of practically an unanimous Republican delegation to the Southern Parliament. He declares that the 'Republic' is stronger than ever, and is the only effective government for the country.

Seeing the 'President of Ireland' is more difficult than seeing the head of the greatest world state. The British say they don't want to arrest him, but he and his followers are taking no chances.

MINERS BACK TO WORK.

Some Shropshire Workers Return To Pits.

London, May 25.—About the only new developments in the British miners strike, to-day was the return of some of the Shropshire miners to work at the old terms, pending settlement of the dispute.

The Rules of the House

After Wednesday's debacle, it can be expected that the Speaker will make the House clearly to understand that the Rules must be carried out. Wednesday he was very lenient in permitting speeches of over 5 minutes on the petition presented. The manner in which this privilege was abused by the Opposition prolonged this stage of the proceedings until midnight. We feel sure that Speaker Penney will have the support of all if he insists that this sort of thing shall cease. Parliament is only a joke for the Opposition. They are "gentlemen at large" with not much responsibility hanging on their shoulders, and they delight to hear themselves talk. They have now realized that the game is up as far as "busting" the Government is concerned, and they have shown themselves as having not one shred of political strategy that is worthy the name. Their tactics have cemented the Government, and cemented the ranks of the Liberal Reform Party. They have lost and know it.

AT THE COUNCIL

The Legislative Council met Wednesday afternoon. The High Commissioner's Bill, was put through the Committee stage, after several speeches had been made in which Sir Edgar Bowring was praised for his efficient work. While Hons. Sir P. T. McGrath and F. McNamara thought that an office would be unnecessary if the present Commissioner resigned, Hons. Dr. Campbell, S. Milley, J. J. Murphy and G. Shea were vigorous in their opinion that it was absolutely necessary to have the office in London, and advocated its removal to more commodious quarters.

The Lotteries Amendment Bill was deferred on the motion of Hon. S. Milley, who laid on the table of the House a petition asking that this Bill be not agreed to. This petition was signed by all the Clergymen in active service in the city of the following denominations: Church of England, Methodist, Presbyterian, Congregational, Salvation Army. It was laid down in the petition that the principle of Lotteries was unsound, and therefore they should be made illegal not only for ordinary purposes but even for charitable and church purposes. The Council adjourned until Monday next.

FAITH HEALING CURES REPORTED

Large Congregations Attend Services Held in the City of Toronto By Special Missionary.

SOME PECULIAR INCIDENTS OCCUR AT GATHERINGS

Toronto, May 23—Great crowds continue to attend the faith healing and revival meetings at Massey Hall by Rev. F. F. Bosworth under the auspices of the Christian and Missionary Alliance. Last night over fifteen hundred people were in the hall, and at least one hundred and fifty afflicted with all sorts of diseases presented themselves for healing.

Faith in the cures effected seemed to be unbounded. One woman testified that when she went on the platform she had not been able to hear an ordinary conversation, and could only hear with difficulty when the words were shouted in her ear. When she left after the laying on of hands and being anointed she answered questions addressed to her in an ordinary tone of voice from a distance of two or three feet.

Considerable interest is being displayed in these cures by medical men and one Toronto doctor is authority for the two following cases, which have come under his notice.

A resident of Gravenhurst had afflicted with pulmonary tuberculosis for the past three years. She had been in bed continuously and prior to attending the meeting last Friday had a temperature of 103. Following the laying on of hands at that meeting, stated the doctor, her temperature had returned to normal and marked improvement had been noticed.

The other case is that of a Toronto woman, Mrs. Humphrey, 131 Birch Ave. She had been afflicted with neuritis for two years; was unable to sleep and suffered excessive pain. She attended a meeting on Wednesday, April 17, and was immediately relieved of pain. She had always required a hot water bottle in order to get any relief on any night on which it rained. The night of the meeting she retired without the usual hot water bottle and, although it was raining, was able to sleep and suffered no pain.

STOCK MARKET PROMISES WEAK

Feeling Not Optimistic for Immediate Future—Steels Continue To Display Weakness.

MONTREAL MARKET CLOSES WITH SITUATION QUIET

Halifax, May 25. (Special.)—Market tone slightly improved this afternoon. There is no news to account for continued weakness this morning or later improvements, latter was probably due to short covering. Lackawanna Steel passes dividend and recent weakness of the market seems to be largely due to such unfavorable happening and many more of such in prospect. Ralls acted better today, but market feeling is not very optimistic for the immediate future although prices are considered attractive for a long pull. In Montreal market Dominion Steel continued weak on rumor that dividend will likely be reduced or passed. The rest of the Montreal market was very quiet.

Wednesday's Cables

Charges Of Intimidation.
Belfast, May 25.—Wholesale charges of intimidation and personation during balloting in Ulster for members of the new Northern Irish Parliament are being made by both Nationalists and Unionists.

One Killed, Two Wounded.
Dublin, May 25.—One civilian was killed, two were wounded and nine captured when soldiers surprised a party destroying Ballycarthy Bridge near Tralee to-day.

Belfast, May 25.—Belfast has returned to almost normal this morning, after a night of wildest excitement. Reports indicate that many districts in Ulster were similarly affected.

ALEXANDRIA RIOTS.
Alexandria, May 23.—It was officially announced this afternoon that a total of 23 persons had been killed and 130 wounded in to-day's rioting. The trouble started between low class Greeks and natives. Indiscriminate fighting and revolver shooting spread to other districts. Police and Egyptian troops quelled the disturbances by three o'clock in the morning. "At seven o'clock many incendiary fires broke out over the town but all were quenched or controlled by noon." There were no British civilian or military casualties. Firing from balconies by Europeans and natives continues. The general officer commanding is issuing a proclamation threatening to open fire on such houses, with machine guns. "The police have made a large number of

The Budget

The Prime Minister, Hon. R. A. Squires, in the absence of the Hon. H. J. Brownrigg Minister of Finance who is unfortunately still ill, presented the Budget Speech in a concise, straightforward manner that earned for him well-merited commendations. He presented the case for the Colony and proved that the financial position of the country is sound and that this Government has tackled the problems of finance in a business-like and efficient way. We hope to be able to give the whole Budget Speech very shortly. The salient features are as follows:

The Estimated Expenditure for year ending June 30th 1921 is $9,766,859.24.

Supplemental Supply including Completion of Sanitarium and Lunatic Asylum begun by Cashin Administration is $1,151,961.83.

Expenditure under the Audit Act is $380,000.00. Unexpended balances are $127,000.00.

This makes a total expenditure of $11,171,821.07.

The estimated revenue is $8,244,104.18.

Taking $3,001,186.21 from previous War Surpluses there will be a Credit Balance for the Colony of $73,469.32.

Much of these War Surpluses come because of extraordinary importations last year so can be applied very justly to reduce the deficit of this year's operations.

The direct cost of the war has been sixteen million dollars, and the total annual liability for expenditure on account of the war, pensions, interest etc., is one and three quarter million dollars.

Last year estimates are reduced by $1,881,564.09 making a net reduction of $3,149,064.09 after providing for interest on new Loan.

Estimated revenue for the year ending June 30th 1922 is $8,404,500.00 and expenditure $8,309,951.15, showing an estimated surplus of $96,704.85.

Based on the present tariff the revenue would yield $6,127,000.00. It is therefore necessary to raise over two million dollars. This is done by a surtax of 25 % on all duties, reduction in civil service salaries, and a sales tax, which latter is expected to yield nine hundred thousand dollars, substituting the Business Profits Tax.

In as much as the Revenue taken from the people was in 1919-1920 $10,597,561.00 and in 1918-1919 $9,535,725.16 and the current year will bring it but $8,372,000.00, the Budget does not mean extra taxation, nor does it add to the cost of living.

The cost of commodities has gone down and even the extra duty placed on now is lower than the duty paid during the past few years.

We shall deal further with this aspect of the Budget later.

The Connection

Said a man who was listening to Sir M. P. Cashin Wednesday asking what connection he had "with McGrath," the connection is pretty close, because Sir Michael visits Sir P. T. every morning and gets his clue for the "daily wail."

arrests. The immediate cause of to-day's rioting, to which disorders in Cairo were preliminary, was explained in official circles here as having its basis in the fact that none of the Egyptian nationalists was chosen on the official delegation coming to London to discuss the future of Egypt. The Premier had opposed the appointment of the Nationalists leader Said Pasha Zagloul, or any of his supporters as members of the delegation, which now is on the way to England. While Zagloul did not participate in the disturbances it was asserted, in these circles, that he was active in stirring up dissatisfaction among the people and was attempting to defeat the programme of the Egyptian Premier, by violence.

Still a seething question is the silhouette in the minds of all. Full or narrow, which is it to be? The answers seem to be that it is entirely a matter of personal choice. Which of the two suits you best? Take that one, Dame Fashion answers kindly, for once in the history of modes of the moment.

Some of the models which I was recently shown by the personal representatives of Worth, Groult and Cheruit had full skirts of regular Victorian proportions, reaching to the ground. One model from Groult might have been worn by Queen Victoria herself and was made of black tulle, with a high collar and tiny tight sleeves on an extremely tight fitting bodice. The skirt was very full and fell below the instep. A second glance showed that this skirt, however, was formed of a number of scallops which reached the knee. One large rosette of French blue crepe de chine was the only touch of color. The French are very fond of black, and all black gowns or all white, with touches of black, are the rule for the fashionable Parisienne. The American woman this summer will not be governed by this law, and models designed for wear on this side of the ocean are coming in delicate pastel shades.

Many of the gowns were cut on sack lines, with very long, bell-like sleeves reaching the knuckles of the hand, and finished at the neck with tiny collars, closed with narrow black ribbons. Dark and black frocks had bright golden embroidery on the collar, cuffs, pockets and on the part of the dress above the string girdle.

In length, all these garments were either extremely long or very short, and, just as we refused last year to wear these above-the-knee French models, so we will again modify these new extremes. There is not much likelihood of the very long skirts making a long stay with us, all the fashion experts agree.

The circular skirt is having a stubborn fight to make itself a place in the tailored models, but is not looked upon with favor.

Embroidery on afternoon gowns and evening frocks is making its way surely if hesitatingly. The black shadow stitchery is particularly noticeable on several of the smart black and white creations. This is shown in the skirt of my Frances gown in the sketch in stripes of black floss embroidered on the white canton crepe. The upper portion of this giving the dull finish prominence. Vestee, collar and cuffs are of white organdie, and the girdle is of black, white and silver. A narrow dress is made of black charmeuse, of which the wrong side is used.

row band of black satin joins the collar and falls below the white organdie cuff.

With this I wear a bright green hat. Black hats with black or black and white costumes are not being worn this season except in case of mourning.

Jerusalem, May 23.—Inhabitants of Transjordan are reported in revolt against the newly appointed ruler, Prince Zeidehird, son King of Hedjaz, and to have defeated the Prince's troops, killing 180 in a pitched battle. The Insurrectionists, it is understood, desire to be governed by British administration under High Commissioner Sir Herbert Samuels.

MUST CUT ESTIMATES.

Great Britain To Cut Expenditures Twenty per Cent.

London, May 25.—All Government branches have been instructed imperatively to cut estimates for next year's supply service by twenty per cent. A circular issued by the Treasury to the various departments states that, as far as can now be seen, the ordinary revenue for 1922-23, even if taxation is remitted, is not likely to exceed £950,000,000. Interest and debt services will absorb £465,000,000. The current year's estimates for the supply services aggregated 602,000,000 pounds.

To Memory of Priests who Officiated in Parish for Past Years.

BISHOP RENOUF OFFICIATES
AT PONTIFICAL VESPERS

The ceremony of installing Rev. W. O'Flaherty as Parish Priest of Placentia took place on Sunday. His Grace Archbishop Roche, accompanied by Rt. Rev. Bishop Renouf, St. George's, Rt. Rev. Mgr. McDermott, V.G., St. John's, Very Rev. J. J. McGrath, P.P., Bell Island, and Rev. T. J. Flynn, was present for the occasion. Solemn High Mass coram pontifice was celebrated at 10.30 o'clock. Rt. Rev. Mgr. McDermott being celebrant, Rev. J. J. McGrath, Deacon, and Rev. T. J. Flynn, Sub-deacon. His Grace was assisted at the Throne by Rev. Father O'Flaherty. Rt. Rev. Bishop Renouf occupied a seat within the sanctuary. Procession was made from the Presentation Convent near by through the Church grounds to the main entrance. The Star Band massed here and on the Archbishop's arrival rendered the Pope's march. During the mass the choir sang very sweetly and tunelessly the Gregorian Missa de Angelis. At the conclusion of the Mass His Grace the Archbishop, addressing the very large congregation that had assembled from all portions of the Parish, said that he was amongst them on the present occasion for the purpose of formally installing the new Pastor who had been recently appointed to the Parish of Placentia. He felt that very few words of introduction were necessary as our people were always ready to extend a cordial welcome to those who came to lead was at that time. The faith minister to them in things spiritual and to guide and direct the spiritual interests of the Parish. Every Pastor came to his people clothed with the powers and prerogatives of his Priestly office, to be amongst them the Minister of Christ and the dispenser of the mysteries of God. But though this was the dominant and leading idea on the occasion of the appointment of a new Parish Priest, still the human element inevitably entered as well, and personal worth necessarily counted very much. Their new Pastor brought with him to the Parish of the large and important work of a vast deal of experience was gathered in other Parishes of the Archdiocese. He had laboured in the many missions and in many capacities and everywhere his record had been that of the zealous Missionary Priest and Father of his people in the various Parishes of which he had been the Pastor he had left behind him material monuments of his zeal in Church and educational improvements, and a more enduring monument still in the esteem and regard of his people. He came now to take up his duties in a Parish whose traditions were deeply rooted in their Catholic past. The Parish of Placentia was one of the oldest and most historic in the country. In the early days of colonisation it was a French settlement, as its name testified, and its first Missionaries came from the great Church of Quebec under whose spiritual jurisdiction all Newfoundland was at that time. The faith planted in these remote ages had been jealously guarded and handed down by a succession of zealous and devoted Pastors from generation to generation even to the present time. Referring to ecclesiastical progress in the Parish in comparatively modern times, the Archbishop said that the three Pastors who were mainly responsible for the building up of the Parish spiritually and materially were Fathers Irvine, and Clancy of revered memory and their late lamented Pastor, Monsignor Reardon. Father Irvine by his Priestly zeal and by the fervid eloquence of his discourses had done much to create that strong Catholic sentiment and spirit for which the Parish had been always remarkable. Father Clancy's great work was the building of their beautiful Parish Church which would long remain a monument to his zeal and activity amongst them. Their late Pastor, Monsignor Reardon, had been Parish Priest of Placentia for nearly a quarter of a century, and Church improvements in all parts of the Parish which he had made remain and would remain for many a day as testimony to his unflinching interest in all that made for the progress and advancement of the Parish. Though well past middle age when he came to the Parish he laboured during his long Pastorate with all the energy of youth, and to the very end had the deepest interest in the welfare of his flock. For some time past the weight of years had been pressing heavily upon him, but even when he had passed the Scriptural limit of three score years and ten, with the courage and characteristic of many of the Priests of his generation he had persisted in remaining at his post and labouring on to the end. He was one of the school of older ecclesiastics who did great missionary work in Newfoundland thirty, forty and fifty years ago under conditions and circumstances far more difficult than those which we are experiencing at the present time. Within the past decade, His Grace said, many of these great Church builders passed away. Amongst the foremost was the late Archbishop of St. John's, a great Churchman and a great Patriot who long before he undertook his great work in the Archdiocese of St. John's had in the youthful days of his Ministry laid the foundations and built the Church in West Newfoundland. Amongst others of this generation he might mention the Venerable Deans Berne, Roche and Doutey, Monsignor St. John, Fathers Vereker and Walsh, and their own late lamented Pastor, Monsignor Reardon, all typical examples of the Missionaries who had built up the Church in the Parishes around the rough shores and along the rugged coastline of Newfoundland. Monsignor Reardon was the last of this noble band to pass away. A few months ago full of years and of labours he had laid down the burden of his Priesthood having remained in active service to the very end, and His Grace felt that his name would be held in honour and loving remembrance by the people of his latest Parish for years and generations to come.

Their new Pastor came to them to day to take up the burden that he had laid down, and his successful administration of other Parishes left no doubt that he would walk in every way worthy of the zealous and devoted Priests who had gone before him. He came to them with the health and strength of comparative youth, and yet withal with that maturity, that sound judgment, that experience in parochial administration which could be only acquired by years of work in the Ministry. He was taking over his new charge at a critical and trying time when problems of Church maintenance, development and expansion would be rendered more difficult by the general depression through which the Colony was passing, but the Archbishop felt that he would prove himself equal to his task aided and assisted by a devoted people. The hope for the future of the Parish lay in unselfish devotion to duty, in wise and prudent administration on the part of the Pastor and generous co-operation on the part of the people committed to his care.

In conclusion His Grace said that he hoped God's Blessing would rest on the Pastor and his work and would render fruitful the combined labours of Pastor and people, and that everything would tend to the good of religion and the progress of the Church under his administration in the ancient Parish of Placentia.

When His Grace had finished speaking W. F. O'Reilly, Esq., on behalf of the people of the Parish read and presented an address of welcome to the new Pastor assuring him of the loyal co-operation of his parishioners in everything that tended to their spiritual and material uplift. The address was signed by representatives of the various sections of the community. An address from the officers and members of the Star of the Sea Association was read by the President, Mr. Ignatius Collins, greeting their new Spiritual Director and giving him an assurance of their loyalty and good will. Father O'Flaherty briefly replied to both addresses thanking the people and the officers and members of the Star Society for their kindly words of welcome. He came to them on a vacation.

SPORTS TO MEET ON FRIDAY NIGHT

Big Gathering Anticipated at the Casino Tomorrow Evening—Parade Ground Plans to be Debated

C. C. C. BAND TO FURNISH MUSICAL PROGRAMME

On Friday night the members of the Football, Baseball and Hockey Leagues will hold a meeting to discuss the advisability of amalgamating the three leagues as The Newfoundland Amateur Athletic Association for the purpose of taking over the parade ground and using it as a headquarter for sports.

Mr. Kielly of the Nickel Theatre has generously offered the use of the Casino, and Mr. Arthur Bulley has promised to have the C. C. C. Band in attendance. There will also be a smoking concert when will be heard some of the city's most popular entertainers.

It is an excellent way to bring together for a social evening, at the beginning of the season the members of the various teams. If the trophies to be competed for were ordered right away they would be available for exhibition before the matches were completed and at the end of the season there could be held similar gathering of all those who took part, their friends and supporters, when the trophies won could be presented to the successful competitors.

A big gathering on Friday night of sporting enthusiasts is assured.

War Memorial

Wednesday's meeting was postponed owing to the small attendance. This is regrettable and a eloquent commentary on the conditions which prevail now, when comedies, plays and all sorts of entertainments are able to pack the Casino night after night. As the Daily News says, until a Memorial, however small, is erected to those of its boys who have "paid the price," St. John's "must stand ashamed and dishonoured."

INSINCERE TEARS.

Any other firm which thought of petitioning the House of Assembly on a similar plea to that of S. Harris Ltd., will certainly hesitate after seeing the use which the Opposition made of the petition yesterday when they slobbered and shed tears over Mr. Harris that he certainly must resent to-day. The aspect of Sir John Crosbie and Sir Michael Cashin getting up like twin political babies and drugging all over the Harris petition, is something which disgusted the spectators. The comment was general that Sir John Crosbie cared as much for Mr. Harris's losses as he did for the cat which he kicks out of his way. The spectacle of these two abled-bodied men, in the prime of life, owning millions between them holding up the firm of S. Harris to the gaze of the public as they did yesterday, is enough to make men and angels weep. Sirs Crosbie and Cashin themselves would not miss from their coffers the amount which would enable Harris to supply his men, but they do not take any risk themselves.

They prefer to get up and slobber the Hansard with a lot of drivel that even the Daily News refuses to print. There is no sincerity in their words, and as the Prime Minister said, they banded Mr. Harris's petition about, made a political football of it, and otherwise brought Mr. Harris before the public eye in a light that surely will not be acceptable to that gentleman.

SEEK SUPPORT FOR MOVEMENT

Child Welfare Work Depends on Assistance Given by the General Public—Women Appealed To.

At a Public Meeting held in the Grenfell Hall on Monday May 16th, a Committee was elected to carry on the work of child welfare in this city. It is clearly understood that in order to make this work a success, it is necessary to have the sympathy and support of the whole community.

The Executive Committee earnestly appeal to every woman in this city to enroll herself as a member of this association and send her name and address and the sum of $1.00, which is to be the annual fee for membership, to the Hon. Treasurer, Miss Mary MacKay. During the Great War it was only necessary to ask for help towards any patriotic object and the women of our country responded most loyally to every appeal, it is not the care of the children and the saving of the child lives of our Community as truly patriotic a work as any we have previously undertaken.

It is therefore confidently expected that within the next month not less than one thousand women will be some members of this new Association, and thus show their interest in the important work of Child Welfare in St. John's.

The following are at present enrolled:—Miss Southcott, Mrs. V. P. Burke, Mrs. A. Marshall, Miss M. MacKay, Miss M. C. Ryan, Mrs. Valentine, Mrs. F. Smith, Mrs. D. M. Laird, Mrs. (Dr.) Scully, Mrs. (Dr.) Roberts, Mrs. H. Rendell, Mrs. A. J. Duff, Mrs. G. Peters, Mrs. W. Peters, Mrs. Fred Rendell, Mrs. L. R. MacNelly, Mrs. Walter Rendell, Mrs. G. Shears, Mrs. J. D. Ryan, Mrs. C. White, Mrs. J. A. Clift, Miss Potts, Miss S. Carter, Miss G. Carter, Miss Meehan, Miss Cobb, Miss Power, Adjutant Sainsbury, Mrs. J. S. Pitts, Mr. F. W. Ayre, Mr. J. S. Ayre, Mrs. A. E. Hickman, Mrs. W. P. Rogerson.

More Falsehoods

The statement in the "Daily News" last week that the cargo of ten thousands five hundred ((10,500) tons Iron Ore by S.S. "Daghill" had gone to Rotterdam Europe was untrue. It was consigned to Sydney, N.S., and the statement in this morning's "News" that the S.S. "Greno" had sailed from Bell Island with ten thousand (10,000) tons Iron Ore for Rotterdam is also untrue. The ship sailed for Huddlesbrough, England. We are sorry that those falsehoods are being published, as they are calculated to influence the public mind against the Bell Island Ore Tax Bill now before the Legislative.

RED CROSS LINE SUES THE U.F. CO.

New York, May 9.—The solicitude of the captain of the steamer Runa under charter to the Red Cross Line, for his wife, which led him to delay twelve hours so he might escort her to a theatre and then led him to take her on board for the voyage to St. John's, Nfld., suggested as the cause of the vessel winding up at the Azores instead of Newfoundland. The skipper is not named in the papers in an action begun in the Supreme Court by the Red Cross against the Atlantic Fruit Company, givers of the charter. The suit seeks the recovery of $35,301, which it is alleged the line had to pay for coal and other expenses of the vagaries of the vessel, which took 39 days to make the ordinary eight-day voyage.

The Runa's cargo was stored and all was in readiness to depart on the evening of Dec. 6, 1919, the company states, but the master of the vessel, furnished by the fruit company, refused to leave until the morning. That night, the line's agent alleges, the captain took his wife to a theatre. Had he not delayed to do this, it is contended, he would have escaped the storm that caught his vessel when within sixty miles of St. John's, and drove it 1300 miles away to the Azores.

At the island the ship laid up for two or three weeks for repairs and additional coal, the complaint alleges. In the answer filed on behalf of the fruit company, it is contended that, wife or no wife on board, the captain did exactly what he should have done under the weather conditions.
